FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

ANTONIA ROSADO, et al.

Plaintiffs

V

CIVIL NO. 98-1065 (DRD)

JOSE GUILLERMO RODRIGUEZ, et al.

Defendants

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

10 Plaintiffs, former employees of the Municipality of Mayag  ez, filed this action under 42 11 U.S.C. § 1993, on January 28, 1998, against defendants Hon. Jos   Guillermo Rodr  guez (the 12 Municipality's Mayor), Enrique A. Rosas-L  pez (former Director of Human Resources of the 13 Municipality), Edgardo Rodr  guez (Director of Human Rosources of the Municipiplaity), and Antonio 14 Rosario, alleging that the decision to privatize several departments in the Municipality and the 15 implementation of the Municipality's Lay Off plan was carried out in a discriminatory manner in 16 violation of their constitutional rights. (See Docket No. 1).¹ Specifically, plaintiffs assert that the 17 implementation of the Lay Off Plan was a subterfuge to mask political discrimination against the 18 supporters of a rival faction within the same political party, the PDP.² In addition, plaintiffs have 19 brought forth several supplemental claims under state law.

20 On May 2, 2001, defendants filed a Motion for Summary Judgment alleging that most of the 21 plaintiffs have failed to establish a cognizable claim of political discrimination (Docket No. 62).³

23 The last amended complaint in this case was filed on April 29, 1998 (Docket No. 12).
24 The cases were consolidated on April 23, 1999. (Dockets No. 25 and 26).

2 In addition, defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss on that same date, alleging that several plaintiffs 3 had failed to appear at their depositions, and thus their claims should be dismissed. (See Docket No.
 4 63). Defendant also filed another Summary Judgment Motion as to two plaintiffs on the grounds
 5 that their claims fell outside the prescribed statute of limitations period. (See Docket No. 64).⁴
 6 Plaintiffs filed a response in opposition to the defendants' summary judgment motions on June 20, 7 2001. (Docket No. 68).⁵

8 MOTION TO DISMISS

9 Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss (Docket No. 63), whereby they seek the dismissal with 10 prejudice of the claims of the eighteen (18) plaintiffs who failed to appear to their scheduled 11 depositions.⁶ Defendants contend that these eighteen plaintiffs failed to appear to their scheduled 12 depositions despite the fact that the parties had agreed to a discovery schedule which was submitted

2 to the Court on September 6, 2000. (See Motion in Compliance with Order and Docket No. 52). The 3 depositions were supposed to take place from October of 2000 through January 2001. Rather 4 than oppose defendants' Motion to Dismiss, plaintiff have addressed the aforementioned issue in 5 a small section within their opposition to defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. (See Docket 6 No. 68, pg. 30). Plaintiffs' attorneys candidly admit that several of the plaintiffs did not in fact 7 appear at their scheduled depositions, and that they will make the necessary effort to "clarify...and.
 8 ..determine whether said plaintiffs were duly notified or not, and to see if they are still interested 9 in pursuing their cases...". (See Docket No. 68, pg. 30). Clearly, this is not the time to make such 10 an effort. This case was filed in 1998, and by Order of the Court all depositions were to be 11 concluded by January 25, 2001. (See Docket No. 52). To this date, March 11, 2002, this Court has 12 still not been informed of the reason why the aforementioned plaintiffs failed to appear at their 13 scheduled depositions. Certainly, this Court may under Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil 14 Procedure, dismiss plaintiffs' complaint with prejudice for failure to appear at their own deposition.
 15 See, e.g., Guex v. Allmerica Financial Life Insurance and Annuity Co., 146 F.3d 40 (1st Cir. 1998).
 16 In addition, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) gives the Court a general grant of authority, 17 "allowing dismissal for...failure to comply with any order of the court." Angulo-Alvarez v. Aponte 18 De La Torre, 170 F.3d 246, 251 (1st Cir. 1999). Therefore, this Court recommends that defendants' 19 Motion to Dismiss be GRANTED.

20

21 MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

22 Rule 56(c), of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, sets forth the standard for ruling on 23 summary judgment motions: The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, 24 depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, 25 show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a 26 judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c). The critical question is whether a genuine issue 27 of material fact exists. A genuine issue exists if there is sufficient evidence supporting the claimed 28 factual dispute to require a choice between the parties' differing versions of the truth at trial. Morris v. Government Dev. Bank of Puerto Rico, 27 F.3d 746, 748 (1st Cir. 1994); LeBlanc v. Great Am.

1 CIVIL NO. 98-1065 (DRD)

2 Ins. Co., 6 F.3d 836, 841 (1st Cir. 1993), cert. denied, 511 U.S. 1018 (1994). A fact is material if it 3 might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law. Morrisey v. Boston Five Cents Sav.
 4 Bank, 54 F.3d 27, 31 (1st Cir. 1995); Maldonando Denis v. Castillo-Rodríguez, 23 F.3d 576, 581
 5 (1st Cir. 1994). On a motion for summary judgment, the court must view all evidence and related 6 inferences in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party. See Springfield Terminal Ry. v.
 7 Canadian Pac. Ltd., 133 F.3d 103, 106 (1st Cir. 1997). Nonetheless, the court is free to “ignore 8 ‘conclusory allegations, improbable inferences and unsupported speculation.’” Suárez v. Pueblo 9 International, Inc., 229 F.3d 49, 53 (1st Cir. 2000) (citing Medina-Muñoz v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco 10 Co., 896 F.2d 5, 8 (1st Cir. 1990)).

11 In order to aid the court in the daunting task of searching for genuine issues of material fact 12 in the record, this district adopted Local Rule 311.12. See, e.g., Corrada Betances v. Sea-Land 13 Service, Inc., 248 F.3d 40, 43-44 (1st Cir. 2001); Morales v. Orssleff's EFTE, 246 F.3d 32, 33-35 14 (1st Cir. 2001); Ruiz Rivera v. Riley, 209 F.3d 24, 27-28 (1st Cir. 2000). This rule, requires, in 15 relevant part, that a party moving for summary judgment submits, in support of the motion, “a 16 separate, short concise statement of material facts as to which the moving party contends there is no 17 genuine issue to be tried and the basis of such contention as to each material fact, properly supported 18 by specific reference to the record.” D.P.R.R. 311.12.

19 It is clearly established in this District that compliance with Local Rule 311.12 is critical, 20 given that the Court will only consider the facts alleged in the aforementioned 311.12 statements 21 when entertaining the movant’s arguments. See Rivera de Torres v. Telefónica de Puerto Rico, 913
 22 F.Supp. 81 (D.P.R. 1995). In this case, defendants filed two statements of uncontested material facts 23 one for each of their summary judgment motions supported by the appropriate references to the 24 specific evidence on file, pursuant to Local Rule 311.12. (See Dockets No. 62 and 64).⁷

25 _____
 26 ⁷ The 311.12 statement contained in defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment 27 (Docket No. 64) contains the specific facts and references pertaining to plaintiffs Wilson Seda 28 Vasallo and Elizabeth Geits Rodríguez. However, defendants also make a cross-reference to the 311.12 statement contained in their other summary judgment motion, which details the specific facts of the Municipality’s lay-off plan and its implementation.

2 I. Motion for Summary Judgment on Statute of Limitations Ground-Docket No. 64:

3 Plaintiffs, on the other hand, have failed to comply with the requirements of Local Rule 4 311.12, given that they filed a general and cryptic statement of contested material facts (see Docket 5 No. 68) bereft of the specific references to the record that the rule requires. As a practical matter, 6 plaintiffs Wilson Seda Vasallo and Elizabeth Geits Rodríguez failed to file a 311.12 statement. The 7 all-inclusive 311.12 statement filed by plaintiffs in conjunction with their opposition motion (Docket 8 No. 68), fails to mention a single fact and/or a reference relative to whether the causes of action of 9 plaintiffs Seda Vasallo and Geits Rodríguez were filed within the prescribed statutory period.
 10 Therefore, this Court will deem admitted the uncontested facts contained in defendants' 311.12 11 statement (Docket No. 64), relative to plaintiffs Seda Vasallo and Geits Rodríguez.

12 The uncontested facts set forth by the defendants and supported by the record, show that both 13 Seda Vasallo and Geits Rodríguez were aware of the alleged discriminatory acts brought forth in 14 their complaints well before the accrual of the one-year statute of limitations period for claims under 15 42 U.S.C. § 1983. In particular, the uncontested facts show that Seda Vasallo was aware of the 16 alleged discriminatory practices as of August of 1996, or at the very latest, February of 1997, but 17 did not file his complaint until May of 1998, after the statutory period of one-year had elapsed. (See 18 Docket No. 64, pgs. 3 and 7). Geits Rodríguez, in turn, knew of the alleged discriminatory denial 19 of her petition to a permanent position sometime in 1996, but did not file her claim until January 5.
 20 1999. (See Docket No. 64, pgs. 4 and 8). Defendants' motion for summary judgment based on the 21 grounds that the claims of Seda Vasallo and Geits Rodríguez are time barred should be granted, 22 since there is no genuine issue of material fact as to the time in which the aforementioned plaintiffs 23 knew of the alleged discriminatory acts alleged in their complaints.

24 II. Motion for Summary Judgment-Docket No. 62:

25 Out of the twenty-three (23) facts enumerated by plaintiffs in their 311.12 statement, fifteen 26 (15) facts contain no specific references to the record.⁸ A list of facts with no specific references to 27

28 ⁸ In their meager attempt to comply with Rule 311.12, plaintiffs have followed each of their general and conclusory statements of fact with a parenthetical reference instructing the Court to look at Exhibits 1 through 84 to find support in the record as to each specific fact contained in the

2 the record is of no use to the Court. In other words, without specific references to the record the list 3 of uncontested facts is worthless, given that “[t]he Court would have to continue to ferret through 4 the record, read all the answers to the interrogatories, study all the attached documents, and carefully 5 scrutinize all the depositions for lurking genuine issues of material fact.” Dominguez v. Eli Lilly & 6 Co., 958 F.Supp. 721, 727 (D.P.R. 1997)(citing Stepanishen v. Merchants Despatch Transp. Corp., 7 722 F.2d 922, 930-931 (1st Cir. 1983). See also, Velez v. Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority, 170 8 F.Supp.2d 158, 160-164 (D.P.R. 2001).

9 “When a party opposing a motion for summary judgment fails to comply with the ‘anti-ferret 10 rule,’ the statement of material facts filed by the party seeking summary judgment [shall be] deemed 11 . . . admitted.” Méndez-Marrero v. Toledo, 968 F.Supp. 27, 34 (D.P.R. 1997); Tavárez v. Champion 12 Prods., Inc., 903 F.Supp. 268, 270 (D.P.R. 1995). Even though the nonmovants’ failure to provide 13 a statement of contested material facts in compliance with Rule 311.12 does not automatically 14 warrant the granting of summary judgment, it nonetheless “launches [their] case down the road 15 towards an easy dismissal.” Méndez-Marrero v. Toledo, 968 F.Supp. at 34.

16 In view that plaintiffs did not comply with the requirements of Local Rule 311.12, this Court 17 will deem admitted the defendants’ statement of uncontested facts, and will therefore examine, given 18 those uncontested facts, whether defendants are entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

20 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

21 Defendant, José Guillermo Rodriguez (hereinafter “Mayor Rodríguez”), has been the Mayor 22 of the Municipality of Mayagüez since January of 1993. Enrique Rosas was, at all times relevant 23 herein, the Director of Human Resources of said Municipality.

24 During 1997 it became evident that the solid waste disposal and the operation of the landfill 25 were becoming extremely onerous to the Municipality in the economic and operational terms (See 26 Docket No. 64, 311.12 statement, Exhibits 1- 2). Mayor Rodríguez submitted a project for the

27 _____
 28 statement. The Court notes, that this is not an appropriate reference to the record. The record contains two hundred and fifty six (256) pages and eighty seven (87) exhibits. Plaintiff, by making a general reference to eighty-four (84) exhibits, is forcing the Court to do precisely what Rule 311.12 seeks to avoid, that is, ferret through the entire record.

2 Municipal Assembly's consideration and approval related to the evaluation of alternatives for the 3 provision of solid waste disposal services and the operation of the landfill. On June 26, 1997 the 4 Municipal Assembly approved Municipal Ordinance No. 102, 1996-97 Series. Id.

5 On July 31, 1997, the Municipality entered into a contract with El Coquí Waste Disposal, 6 Inc., for the provision of services of solid waste disposal and for the operation of the Municipal 7 landfill. (Id. at Exhibit 3). Through Resolution No. 23, dated July 31, 1997, the Municipal 8 Assembly ratified the contract between the Municipality and El Coquí Waste Disposal, Inc. (Id. at 9 Exhibit 4).

10 I. Lay-off plan as it pertained to the employees of the Municipal landfill (98-1065):

11 On May 19, 1997, Mayor Rodríguez adopted a Layoff Plan which would serve to regulate 12 all layoffs of personnel as a result of lack of funds, work shortages, reorganization, the 13 implementation of technological advances and/or the privatization of governmental services. (Id. at 14 Exhibit 5). On May 19, 1997, the Assembly ratified the aforementioned plan pursuant to the 15 Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Autonomous Municipalities Act. (Id. at Exhibit 6). On May 20, 16 1997, a copy of the Lay-off plan was sent to all municipal employees. (Id. at Exhibit 7). Seniority 17 Lists of all municipal employees were prepared and posted reflecting each employee's date of hire, 18 seniority and title of classification. (Id. at Exhibit 8).

19 On May 21, 1997, a Notice of Seniority was sent to all municipal employees reflecting the 20 amount of time for which they worked for the Municipality in accordance to each employee's 21 personnel record. (Id. at Exhibit 9). Employees who did not agree with their seniority status had the 22 opportunity to submit any available evidence to challenge the same. (Id. at Exhibits 9 and 10). In 23 addition, employees affected by the Layoff Plan were informed of their right to appeal before the 24 Puerto Rico Personnel System Appeals Board (JASAP) and their right to reinstatement according 25 to the Reinstatement Registry. (Id. at Exhibit 11).

26 On July 10, 1997, municipal employees who had been previously informed of their layoffs, 27 effective July 31, 1997, and who had priority in the Reinstatement Registry, were summoned to an 28 interview on July 14, 1997, to accept various available positions as transitory or part-time employees. (Id. at Exhibit 12). Also on July 10, 1997, the affected employees were informed that

1 CIVIL NO. 98-1065 (DRD)

2 El Coquí Waste Disposal, Inc., would be hiring employees for several positions within the company, 3 as per its duty under their contract with the Municipality. (Id. at Exhibit 13).

4 On July 10, 1997, as part of the operation of the Layoff Plan, the Municipality made offers 5 of employment to some of the employees who were originally thought to be affected by operation 6 of the plan, but were eligible to occupy positions within other municipal departments. (Id. at Exhibit 7 14).

8 II. Lay-off plan as to the employees of the Hospital San Antonio and vehicular fleet (99-1004):

9 On March 24, 1998, all municipal employees were notified by the Mayor of the Layoff Plan 10 to be implemented as a result of the privatization of Hospital San Antonio. The Plan was ratified by 11 the Assembly on May 19, 1997, and copies were sent to the different municipal departments 12 thereafter. (Id. at Exhibit 16). Contemporaneously, the Municipal Assembly authorized the Mayor 13 to negotiate the privatization of services for the repair and maintenance of the municipal vehicular 14 fleet. (Id. at Exhibit 17). Once again, seniority lists of all municipal employees were available and 15 posted reflecting each employee's date of hire, seniority, and title of classification. (Id. at Exhibit 16 18).

17 On May 4, 1998, a Notice of Seniority was sent to all municipal employees reflecting the 18 time they worked according to each employee's personnel record. (Id. at Exhibit 19). Employees 19 who did not agree with their seniority status were given the opportunity to submit additional 20 evidence to challenge their entitlement. (Id. at Exhibits 19 and 20). Based on the seniority of the 21 laid-off employees, a reinstatement registry was prepared and published. (Id. at Exhibit 21). On 22 May 16, 1998, the employees affected by the plan were informed of their right to appeal and their 23 right to reinstatement in accordance with the registry. (Id. at Exhibit 22).

24 On June 9, 1998, those employees who had previously been informed of their layoffs, 25 effective June 30, 1998, were notified that the new effective date for the layoffs would be on July 26 31, 1998. (Id. at Exhibit 23). On July 21, 1998, the employees to be laid off were notified that, due 27 to the prolonged negotiation process for the privatization of the maintenance and repair services, the 28 layoffs would be effective on September 20, 1998. (Id. at Exhibit 24).

2 DISCUSSION

3 “When political discrimination is alleged in a case involving the dismissal of a non-4 policymaking employee, the plaintiff[s] must first produce sufficient evidence, either direct or 5 circumstantial , from which a ‘rational jury could find that political affiliation was a substantial or 6 motivating factor behind the adverse employment action.’”Angulo-Alvarez v. Aponte De La Torre, 7 170 F.3d at 249 (citing Rodríguez-Rios v. Cordero, 138 F.3d 22, 24 (1st Cir. 1998)). See also, 8 Figueroa-Serrano v. Ramos-Alverio, 221 F.3d 1, 7-8 (1st Cir. 2000). As previously discussed, the 9 plaintiffs have failed to submit a proper 311.12 statement from which the Court could determine, 10 whether or not there is sufficient evidence to establish if plaintiffs’ political affiliation was a 11 substantial or motivating factor behind the adverse employment action. The defendants have made 12 reference to each particular plaintiff and to his or her lack of evidence as to the issue of whether his 13 or her political affiliation was a substantial or motivating factor behind the adverse employment 14 action taken against that particular plaintiff. (See Docket No. 62, 311.12 statement, pgs. 6-24).
 15 Plaintiffs, on the other hand, fail to present this Court with any specific evidence from which to 16 sustain their prima facie cases of political discrimination. This Court is not obliged to sift through 17 a two hundred and fifty-six (256) page record and map out each of the relevant facts which could 18 substantiate a claim for political discrimination as to each of the plaintiffs with no guidance 19 whatsoever from the plaintiffs’ attorneys.

20 Not only have plaintiffs undisputedly failed to meet the threshold burden of establishing that 21 their political affiliation was a substantial or motivating factor behind the adverse employment 22 action taken by defendants, but most importantly, the defendants have articulated and proven that 23 the layoff plan was implemented irrespective of the employees’ political affiliations. See, e.g., 24 Angulo-Alvarez v. Aponte De La Torre, 170 F.3d at 249)(“Once the plaintiff[s] meet[] the threshold 25 burden, the burden then shifts to the defendant-employer who must articulate a nondiscriminatory 26 basis for the adverse employment action and prove by a preponderance of the evidence that it would 27 have been taken without regard to a plaintiff’s political affiliation.”). See also Padilla-García v.
 28 Guillermo Rodríguez, 212 F.3d. 69, 74 (1st Cir. 2000).

2 CONCLUSION

3 In view of the aforementioned, this Court recommends that defendants' Motion to Dismiss 4 (Docket No. 63) relative to the eighteen plaintiffs who failed to appear at their depositions be 5 GRANTED. In addition, the Court recommends that defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment 6 on statute of limitations grounds relative to plaintiffs Seda Vasallo and Geits Rodríguez be 7 GRANTED. (Docket No. 64). Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (Docket No. 62)
 8 pertaining to all the remaining plaintiffs should also be GRANTED. Therefore, the consolidated 9 cases should be DISMISSED in their entirety.

10 It should be noted that two plaintiffs, Richard González Cumba and Eduardo Malavé Zeno, 11 have filed documents stating their intention to voluntarily dismiss their claims against the defendants 12 in this case. (See Docket No. 68, Exhibits 88 and 89).

13 Under the provisions of Rule 510.2, Local Rules, District of Puerto Rico, any party who 14 objects to this report and recommendation must file a written objection thereto with the Clerk of the 15 Court within ten (10) days of the party's receipt of this report and recommendation. The written 16 objections must specifically identify the portion of the recommendation, or report to which objection 17 is made and the basis for such objections. Failure to comply with this rule precludes further 18 appellate review. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 155 (1985), reh'g denied, 474 U.S. 1111
 19 (1986); Davet v. Maccorone, 973 F. 2d 22, 30/31 (1st Cir. 1992); Paterson-Leitch v. Massachusetts 20 Elec., 840 F.2d 985 (1st Cir. 1988); Borden v. Secretary of Health and Human Servs., 836 F.2d 4,
